Separately quoted work

Paid media spend and ad management; trailer or video editing and repair; extra concepts, revisions, titles, campaigns, channels or posts beyond the agreed scope.

Creator earnings, commercial participation and any license fee paid by the network are governed separately. The standard title license is 12 months. No audience, earnings or profit is guaranteed; earned payment obligations still apply.

This is an informational service brochure, not an executed contract. Final project scope is agreed before work begins. Payment timing, cancellation and refunds are confirmed separately in the written proposal.
